John Monroe, being first duly sworn,
deposes and says:

That he knew Geneva Vera Scheets for many years last past, in fact, ever since she was a child going to school in Macomb, Illinois, and that he had known her and been in close touch with her since her childhood; that said Geneva Vera Scheets, who died in Maricopa County, Arizona, on July 3rd, 1958, never had any children, and that she did not leave surviving her any children or any issue of deceased children; that in addition to knowing Geneva Vera Scheets during all of said time, he was also well acquainted with the family of the said Geneva Vera Scheets;

That said Geneva Vera Scheets was never married prior to her marriage to John J. Scheets in the year 1934; that the maiden name of said Geneva Vera Scheets was Geneva Vera King, which was her true and correct name prior to her marriage to John J. Scheets; that, however, said Geneva Vera King never liked her given name of Geneva Vera, and that prior to her marriage to John J. Scheets she at all times used the name of Jeri King; that after her marriage to said John J. Scheets she continuously used the name Jeri K. Scheets or Jeri Scheets instead of her correct name of Geneva Vera Scheets; that the said Geneva Vera Scheets and Jeri K. Scheets or Jeri Scheets were one and the same person.
